Safeguarding Children: What You Need To Know About Bullying and Harassment

Thursday February 9th, 2012 6:30 PM

Berks Catholic High School Auditorium
955 East Wyomissing Boulevard Reading, PA

Families who attend this informative session will learn to identify the difference between conflicts and bullying. Dr. Coyle will also discuss the warning signs that their child may be a target of bullying or a participant in a bullying incident (including cyber bullying). You will learn how to work effectively with your schools to ensure that children are safe from bullying and harassment. Practice scenarios to apply newly learned information are an integral part of this workshop.

Dr. Coyle is sole proprietor of Professional Development Services founded in 1993. She provides training and consulting services for schools on issues of violence prevention, school climate, mental health, anger management, bullying prevention, and social emotional learning. She is also an Associate Professor in the Department of Education at Elizabethtown College where she teaches Child/Adolescent Psychology, Learning Environments, and Social Interaction in Inclusive Settings. Dr. Coyle is a well published author and certified trainer.
